AMEND Senate Bill No. 7001*

House Bill No. 7001

by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

SECTION __. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2, Chapter 10, Part 1, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

§ 2-10-1__.

(a) A member of the general assembly, when voting on any bill, section of a bill, or amendment in which the member has a personal interest, must disclose the nature of the member's interest in the outcome of the vote. If the vote is made on the floor, the member shall make disclosure by promptly filing a memorandum on the day the vote is taken with the chief clerk of the member's house. Such disclosure shall be printed in the journal of the member's house and posted on the Internet. If the vote is made in a standing committee, subcommittee, special or ad hoc committee the member shall make disclosure by promptly filing a memorandum on the day the vote is taken with the chair of such committee.

(b) The memorandum of disclosure must identify the legislation in question, the date of the member's declaration, the signature of the member, and a description of the member's personal interest.

(c) The ethics committee of the member's house shall investigate and take appropriate action upon an allegation that a member has failed to file a disclosure pursuant to subsection (a).
